USfalcon names Chief Operating Officer

Morrisville, N.C. – USfalcon Inc. Board of Directors announced today that Major General, USA (Retired) Gerard “Jerry” Brohm has joined USfalcon as its Chief Operating Officer (COO) commencing June 4, 2007. General Brohm previously held significant leadership positions at The Sytex Group Inc. (TSGI) and Lockheed Martin Corp. Prior to these positions, he served in the U.S. Army for 31 consecutive years until his retirement in 1998.

General Brohm was the Deputy Commanding General of the U.S. Army Signal Center and Fort Gordon, GA, and the Commanding General of the Communications Electronics Command at Fort Monmouth, NJ.

“We are excited that Jerry Brohm has accepted the position as COO at USfalcon after serving on our Board of Advisors. Jerry brings a wealth of experience and insight to our growing company from his 31-year Army career and his 9-year industry career,” stated David Gust, President, USfalcon, Inc.

General Brohm said: “This Company (USfalcon) has tremendous vision and energy. It has an unparalleled reputation for excellence and it is growing at a phenomenal rate. I am proud and happy to be joining such a team of consummate professionals who are dedicated to making our country stronger and more secure.”
