USfalcon Sponsors 5K Run in Iraq

Morrisville, N.C. – USfalcon Inc is sponsoring the 447th Force Support Squadron Independence Day 5K Run at the Baghdad International Airport on July 4th 2009. USfalcon is funding this event through the Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Fund of the Air Combat Command in Langley, VA without cost to the Government.

This event is open to the several thousand military forces stationed at Sather AB and Baghdad International Airport including Air Force, Army, Navy and Coalition Forces. 400 runners are expected to take part in this event to keep our military in touch with American traditions and holidays while stationed in the war zone.

“Sponsored events are an important reminder to those stationed away from home that our Service personnel are deployed and America cares,” stated Pete von Jess, CEO/President, USfalcon Inc. “it is an honor for us to support an event like this because of our own employees deployed in support of the military as well as other employees whom are currently mobilized and serving Iraq.”
