News Release

John Kasperavicius joins USfalcon as Director Operations

Morrisville, N.C. – USfalcon announced today that John Kasperavicius has joined the company starting July 27, 2009 as its Director of Operations, Northeast as well as Program Director for its Strategic Services Sourcing (S3) Prime contract. Mr. Kasperavicius will be responsible for all USfalcon Operations supporting the CECOM Life Cycle Management Command (CECOM LCMC) and the entire C4ISR mission area. He will work out of the USfalcon Shrewsbury Offices and will be responsible for the transition of the support to Aberdeen Proving Grounds into new offices as Team C4ISR makes it transition.

Mr. Kasperavicius has over 25 years experience functioning in leadership and executive management positions. He has previously held significant leadership positions at DRS Technologies, Lockheed Martin Corp, The Sytex Group Inc. (TSGI), Analytics Inc and Picatinny Arsenal. A long time resident of New Jersey, Mr. Kasperavicius has a BS, Industrial Engineering and a MS, Management Engineering both from the New Jersey Institute of Technology, Newark, NJ.

“We are excited that John Kasperavicius has accepted this critical position,” stated Jerry Brohm, COO/President Defense Solutions Group, USfalcon, “With his leadership and experience I am confident in his ability to increase our growth and support of the C4ISR community.”
