USfalcon receives Nunn-Perry Award from the Department of Defense

Morrisville, N.C. – USfalcon Inc. was recognized with a 2008 Nunn-Perry award as an outstanding Protégé by the Department of Defense (DoD) Small Business Office on March 12th 2008 at the annual Mentor-Protégé conference held in Daytona, FL. The Mentor-Protégé team of Booz Allen Hamilton (BAH) and USfalcon successfully completed a two year Mentor-Protégé agreement in November 2007 which included participation by North Carolina Central University (NCCU) in Durham, NC as the Historically Black College/University-Minority Institution teammate. The award was accepted on behalf of USfalcon by Pete von Jess, Chairman and CEO. Participating in the Award Ceremony with USfalcon was Henry (Hank) Harrison Valentine, CEO, Historically Black College/university /Minority Institution (HBCU/MI) Project Office representing NCCU.

The prestigious Nunn-Perry Award, named in honor of former Senator Sam Nunn and former Secretary of Defense William Perry, was first awarded in 1995 to recognize outstanding Mentor-Protégé teams formed under the auspices of the DoD Mentor-Protégé program.

All eligible nominations are reviewed and numerically scored by a review panel, whose members are chosen at the discretion of the DoD Director, OSADBU. The review panel presents their nominations in order of ranking to the DoD Director, OSADBU, for consideration for award. The number of awards is at the discretion of the Department of Defense. In 2008 there were 8 awards presented nationwide.

“To be selected for the Nunn-Perry is an extremely high honor,” stated MG(R) Gust, “The MPP with BAH and NCCU has certainly contributed to the success of USfalcon these past two years. This program provided on-line training programs through NCCU for our employees serving in Iraq with our Army customers, and assistance from BAH to establish our Quality Management System and achieve ISO 9001:2000 certification this past year.”
